The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applications on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal agency which administers compliance with this law concerning this company is the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

NOTICE: Unless application for credit is made jointly by husband and wife, an inquiry into marital status is prohibited by law unless for the purpose of determining rights or remedies available to the creditor applicable to the particular extension of credit.

By signing below, you hereby declare, to the best of your knowledge, that all information provided on this application is accurate and up to date, to the best of your knowledge and that you authorize The Cash Company 1) to verify any and all information related to the granting of credit and 2) to release information for the purposes of credit solicitation by other credit granting company(s).
